

Return Policy

Products purchased from Nelgar may be returned for credit provided the returned item is unused, in substantially new condition, and considered by Nelgar to be a normally stocked item and Nelgar gives its written consent.

A minimum restocking fee of 20% of list price plus freight will be charged for inspection and testing on all products returned for credit.

No products or other material will be accepted for credit after ninety (90) days from date of purchase.

Thank you.
